EDWARD WINS FOR MADDEN

TAKES RICH GRAND UNION HOTEL STAKES FROM BADLY RIDDEN BOBBIN.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 12.—There was a suggestion of more rain in the air, which, combined with the intense humidity, detracted somewhat from the enjoyment of the 5,000-and-odd race-goers assembled at the track today. The card was so varied and attractive, however, and produced such good sport that more enthusiasm and keener interest was manifested than on almost any day of the meeting. The unexpectedly good track was due to it having been rolled continuously from early dawn.

Helmet whirled and was as good as left at the post in the $10,000 Grand Union Hotel Stakes at Saratoga today, and Torbellino, in near inside proximity to the favorite, was forced to pull up in order to avert a threatened collision. The double contreclop left only a minute of two-year-olds in J. E. Madden's pair, Edward and Lady Hubbard, Harry Payne Whitney's Bobbin, H. B. Duryea's Strike Out and F. E. Gardner's Statesman, to battle for the rich prize. Edward stripped in superb condition. His coat shone like satin and his preliminary was wonderfully fetching. Shilling rode Madden's colt to victory in a way that evoked favorable comment. He made no premature move with Edward to overhaul Strike Out, the flying non-staying nonconformist. It would have invited ultimate defeat, as he only just stayed off Bobbin by a wisely delayed stretch sprint. The latter's final challenge would have been effective with any other jockey but Sammy Sweet, whose finish was so conspicuously weak that the almost leaving of the favorite at the post was forgotten.

Sweet furnished a similar repetition of masterly inactivity on Miss Greenville in the last race and a report was circulated during the evening that Madden had resigned second call on the California lad. It seemed strange to see an inexperienced novice like Sweet preferred to ride a crack two-year-old in a big stake race. That Notter had Miller, but such was the case, the former champion jockey sitting around disengaged all afternoon.

The leaving of James R. Keene's highly tried two-year-old, Helmet, created a veritable sensation in view of being an odds-on favorite. Trainer Laurence Rowe was so chagrined over the result that he left the track, not even deigning to look at his colt as he stood at the judges' stand waiting to be unsaddled. The starter said that Notter had flogged Helmet while at the post, one particular cut with his whip under the belly causing him to balk. This was so palpable to Mr. Cassidy that he warned the jockey to desist and keep his mount straight. The warning was unheeded and the signal found Helmet both unready and unwilling.

The tabular history of the Grand Union Hotel Stakes is as follows:

It proved merely a play for Angelus to dispose of his opponents, including Danvers and Kenneyto, in the Champlain Handicap, the secondary feature on the card, run as the third race, and he won with scarce the semblance of effort. Kenneyto was very unruly at the post and delayed the start. All but left, the Sanford filly developed a great burst of early speed, but failed and was never formidable after going the first half. The winner was the highest tried veteran in the Westbury establishment, but he became vicious and on one occasion kicked a man so seriously that death resulted and John W. Rogers had him altered. In his first start Angelus ran so badly that Rogers was disgusted with him, and he was subsequently sold to the Hitchcocks for $1,700.

The tabular history of the Champlain Handicap is given below:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1901	Rockton	124	Shaw	$2,300	1:54
1902	Advee Guard	129	Odum	2,935	1:51

A man carrying a fireman's badge and said to have been at the track today, after considerable trouble he secured a betting commissioner who volunteered to place $10 on Whip Top in the first race. The agent failed to get the bet down and the money was returned to the intending bettor, who had all the earmarks of a "Rube" constable.

The smallest field of the afternoon competed in the steeplechase at five miles. It was a one-sided affair, Bayonet entering as the favorite and opponent, in the last half of the will of his rider. Members of the Personal Liberty League to the number of 5,000, headed by several brass bands, paraded up and down Broadway before attending the mass meeting tonight at Convention Hall. The immense building was nearly filled to suffocation with sympathizers of this popular movement.

GOV. HUGHES AND SARATOGA'S SHERIFF. All but declared to fight for what he thinks is right even against Governor Hughes' move to remove him from office. He declares that he has kept the law as laid down by Judges Bischoff and Gaynor. After a conference with the sheriff, Senator Brackett, his lawyer, issued the following statement:

"I have seen a copy of the charges against the Saratoga county sheriff, as published in the morning papers. I know nothing of the facts—nothing that has occurred on the track—because I have not been there. But if the sheriff has honestly done his duty on the lines laid down in the written opinion I gave him for his guidance, he cannot properly be removed, nor have I any idea that he will be, for the opinion simply stated the law as it is and as the courts have held it to be.

"I do not believe, nor do I have any reason to believe, that the governor will try to make a martyr of the sheriff in order to show his own zeal against race track gambling. In the first place, I think that is neither the conception nor measure of duty of the governor. In the next place, such a course is entirely unnecessary. His zeal is pretty well known already, I guess.

"I assume the hearing will be conducted with the same fairness as a proceeding in court, and I shall prepare for it in the same way, knowing of no reason why I should attempt to try the matter out in the newspapers, nor shall I."

BELMONT PARK STAKE VALUES HIGH. New York, August 12.—By renewing the Nursery Handicap, $4,000 added; Champagne Stakes, $5,000 added; Jerome Handicap, $3,000 added; Municipal Handicap, $2,500 added; and Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Race, $5,000 added, and by announcing through the Racing Calendar, the organ of the Jockey Club, that the Matron, $10,000 added, will be run at undiminished value this year, the Westchester Association proclaims that Belmont Park intends to do the best it can for horsemen and for the sport.

AMERICAN RUNNING RECORDS TO DATE.

In the course of the last ten years the speed of race tracks has been developed to such an extraordinary degree that the fast horses of the period have set marks difficult to eclipse. Still some record breaking takes place each year and 1908 is no exception. So far this year five new American records have been made, mostly over the short distances. Of the five, one, Carnisa, three and a half furlongs in 40½, was made at Oakland; two, Preceptor's four and a half furlongs straight in 51 and Restigouche's seven and a half furlongs in 1:31½, at Belmont Park; one, Fern L's five and a half furlongs in 1:05, at Seattle, and one, Ballot's one and five-sixteenths miles in 2:09½, at Sheepshead Bay. At Seattle Toupee tied the three-quarters record of 1:11½, held jointly by Roseben and Colonel Bob.

It is hardly probable that these are all of the new records to be made this year. Fast horses abound, and with Sheepshead Bay, Brighton Beach, Belmont Park and the incomparably speedy Santa Anita Park track to be raced over, something really sensational may yet be recorded. In the meantime, the records to date are the following:

MUD RACING AT FORT ERIE

RAIN DELUGES THE TRACK AND CAUSES CANCELLATION OF TWO RACES.

Serenade and Tom Dolan the Only Winning Favorites —Uneasy Falls. No Injury Resulting—

Gloriole First In.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 12.—Heavy rains during the morning caused havoc to the track at Fort Erie today and was responsible for wholesale withdrawals which almost riddled the card. The fourth and fifth, which were feature races and in which some fairly good horses were entered, had to be declared off because of the bad going. As there was no time to substitute another race the original sixth race was split up to make a full card. The rain ceased before race time and a big attendance was on hand. After the last race the rain began again with renewed vigor and the returning masses felt its full force.

Today's sport was uninteresting, with a liberal sprinkling of surprises as a sidelight. Only two choices were successful during the afternoon. Serenade and Tom Dolan saving the favorite backers. All the winners led their opponents profitably throughout and were well in hand at the finish.

An accident in the fourth race threatened to be attended with serious results when Uneasy, ridden by E. Martin, fell while running in a contending position. Beyond a shaking up, however, the rider and horse escaped injury. He was just making a play for the lead and going fast when he fell, and but for the mishap would have won.

A score of good things were handed around in the opening purse for maidens. Anemone, however, proved best and led Tom Reid for the entire trip. Gloriole, after many attempts, managed to find conditions suitable and came away to handy victory in the second race. At that, had Lady Leota got away on even terms with Gloriole's sister, the Cella filly would have taken her measure.

Tom Dolan, running to his best form, had practically a walkover in the closing race after he had raced Usury into subjection in the first half. The poor showing of Quagga, which failed to be placed in a field of four and finished a distant last, occasioned adverse comment.

Polar Star spreadeagled his opponents in the sixth race and won as his rider pleased, Dix Ben, favorite, under a hard drive, just getting up to get second place before the finish. The decision was made by the fact that the horse was in the lead at the post.

T. C. McDowell's Serenade had things her own way in the third race.

The judges suspended jockey Moreland for three days for his rough riding in the sixth race. Jockey Kennedy was sharply warned by the officials for his attempt at roughing it while astride Tom Dolan.

T. C. McDowell has signified his intention to ship his string of horses to Montreal, where they will be raced.

J. C. Ferriss, Jr. will send his horses as well as those he is handling for Renwick Bros. to Montreal. The Montreal Club management is erecting three additional large stables in an effort to accommodate applicants for stable room.

MAHONEY GUILTY OF NO CRIME.

New York, August 12.—The justices of the Court of Special Sessions handed down a decision today which makes betting in the hotels, either on the races, on the election or on anything else, so long as it is between individuals, permissible and encouraged. The decision was handed down in a case specifically that the stakeholders in such bets cannot be molested by the police.

The decision, which was written by Justice Hoyt and concurred in by others, was the result of the arrest on July 25 of Charles Mahoney, manager of the Hoffman House cafe, after he had accepted $60 on a bet made by Nelson A. Herzog to be placed on a horse named Enfield at Brighton Beach. The decision says that Mahoney was guilty of no crime and he was accordingly discharged.

The decision says: "The obvious intention of section 331 of the penal code is to prohibit the business of bookmaking or pool-selling, and make any participation in such business a crime. Mere individual betting, unconnected with the carrying on of the gambling business, has been decided not to constitute, in itself, a violation of the statute."

The decision then cites a number of authorities, including the opinion of Supreme Court Justice Gaynor, in which the latter says: "An ordinary bet is a crime, whether in the form of a bet on the golf links, or at the race track, nor is the making of a note or memorandum thereof, but if you hold yourself out for bets, and bet with all kinds of people, or generally, or become a general recorder of such bets, or of bets between others, you are guilty of a crime."

JAMES R. KEENE NOT GOING TO ENGLAND.

New York, August 12.—There is some mystery about the engagement of Baldaton Lodge, Newmarket, as training quarters for American stables for next season. James R. Keene is not to use it, as London Sportsman declared. He declared yesterday that he had no definite arrangements for a turf campaign in England next year. Mr. Keene said he looked for better local conditions next year in America than at present.

The office of Mr. Belmont, Secretary Felz stated that no information had come from London in regard to Mr. Belmont's plans for next season. From another source it was learned that Harry Payne Whitney, who is in England, was the American turfman who may have joined with Mr. Belmont in securing a lease of Baldaton Lodge at Newmarket, the great English training ground.

JOCKEY BUTLER A GOOD LIGHTWEIGHT.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 12.—Outside of V. Powers, the jockey sensation here is J. Butler, a Lexington lad who has been riding now for nearly two years. Butler came here from Latonia where his saddle work attracted attention. After the first week of the meeting, Ben Jacobs, who made J. Lee's mounts last year, took hold of him. Last week Butler rode ten winners, having to his credit three victories on Thursday and three on Saturday, a record that any ninety-five pound boy might well be proud of. Butler is a level headed, well-mannered little chap. He is a good post boy, has the knack of placing a horse in races and will take chances. He is one of the most promising lightweights here.

JERSEY LIGHTNING TO BE RETIRED.

H. P. Whitney's filly, Jersey Lightning, goes to the stud. She has a bad knee and ankle, but is a fine individual. Her dam, Daisy F., was a fine mare, well remembered in Chicago. Ed Corri- gan sold her to the Whitneys eight years ago. Mr. Whitney having sent the late John Hanning all the way from New York to California to secure the mare. The late John W. Rogers was always disinclined to have a horse treated with the firing iron, else Jersey Lightning would last year have been treated. Mr. Whitney instructed Joyner to win at least one race with the filly before she retired to the stud.

LOGISTILLA AND PROLIFIC AT LONG ODDS.

Seattle, Wash., August 12.—Showers that fell during the day had form calculations badly at The Meadows. All the favorites were bowled over and long shots were decidedly prominent. Prolific, at 60 to 1, and Logistilla, at 50 to 1, being included in the list of winners. The race which Prolific won had such suspicious angles that the judges suspended jockey Lycurgus indefinitely, ordered jockey Carroll to accept no more mounts here and took the case of jockey Boland under advisement. These horses were on horses in the race that failed to run as well as was expected. The theory is that an attempt was made to "shoo in" St. Francis. Logistilla's victory in the handicap was undoubtedly made possible by the soft footing, which favored her dicker legs.
Jockey Morgan came in for sharp criticism on account of Jacomo's defeat. With his mount lapped on Forest Rose, the ultimate winner, and gaining at every stride, Morgan suddenly ceased leading a few yards from the finish, and Jacomo suffered a head defeat. Morgan declared that he thought the finish line had been passed when he let up.
The management has refused to sanction a proposed arrangement by which the bookmakers were to pay the expense of an extra race to the end of the meeting, and there will be seven races only on special occasions.

AMERICANS FOR DERBY AND OAKS.

Nominations in the Great English Classics for 1910 Less Numerous Than Expected.London, Eng., August 1.—The publication of the nominations to the Derby and Oaks of 1910 shows that quite a number of the young horses have been given at least an initial chance.
For the Derby August Belmont has named Merry Task, by Octagon—Merry Task; Hasty Pudding, by Hastings—Tea's Over; Taster, by Hastings—Tar-paul; Glipper, by Hastings—Glory, and a chestnut colt by Hamburg—Enchantress. In the Oaks he has Woodfire, by Octagon—Woodvine, and Ford Memories, by Octagon—Ford Hopes. E. C. Cowdin has entered Newmarket II, by Meddler to Honesman, in the Derby. Captain Michael Hughes has in the Derby a brown colt by Ben Brush—Home Rule.
Lord Lonsdale has among his Derby entries the colt by Hurst Park—Rapture and the filly by Kingston—Glacier. The latter and the filly by Disculse —Tarnia being in the Oaks also. All were purchased at the sale of the Keene yearlings at Newmarket in July. In the Derby Mr. C. H. Mackay has named the bay or brown colt by Meddler—Loch Dee; bay or brown colt by Meddler—Hatasoo, and bay filly by Meddler—Vantage. His Oaks entries are the bay filly by Meddler—Vantage, bay filly by Meddler—Admiral, and brown filly by Meddler—Correction. In the Oaks alone are G. Schillitz's bay filly Diana, by Ben Strone—Certo and G. D.
Smith's bay filly by Disculse—Roselaw. In the Derby Mr. James A. de Rothschild has the brown colt Nankow, by Kingston—Dominos, and Mr. H.
H. Stanhope the black colt by Watercross—Marchal Neil.Collaterally interesting to Americans are some other nominations. Richard Croker has a chestnut colt by Lesterlin—Sabbie Queen in the Derby and the brown filly Maurentina, by Lesterlin—St. Ima, in the Oaks. He recently sold the chestnut colt, The Bather, by Lesterlin or Clonmell—Rhoda B., to Mr. P. J. Benson and the latter has entered him in the Derby. Lord Ellesmere is the owner of the fine American-bred race horse and sire, King's Courier, and has by him in the Derby the colts Drury Lane, dam Harlequinade. In the Oaks he has Olive Branch, by King's Courier—Protocol. Stockade, by King's Courier—Fortalice, and a bay filly by King's Courier—Sabra. The Chevalier Giniestrelli, owner of this year's Derby winner, Signorinetta, has a full sister to his now famous filly in both the Derby and Oaks. Her name is Star of Naples. In the Oaks he also has the filly Chaleureuse, by Chaleureux—Fair Fortune.The king has two Derby nominations, Orel-lus, by Orme—Eclia, and Border Prince, by Persimmon—White Lilac, but he has four representatives in the Oaks in the fillies Flaming Vixen, by Flying Fox—Amphibole, Daphnia, by Diamond Jubilee —Amphibole, Slim Lady, by St. Simon—La-comedia, and Perla, by Persimmon—Loch Doon.It would be a most melancholy thing if there were any falling in the entry for the Derby, and it is accordingly gratifying to note that for the race of 1910 there are no fewer than 284 nominations. For next year's there are 318. The increase is by no means entirely due to the action of American owners, most excusably disgusted with the venomous and at the same time ridiculous tacks on sport which are being made in their own country. It is true that thirty-nine of the entries are of American horses, but these are generally a score or so. The absurd Governor Hughes has but slightly helped to swell the entry.

BOOKMAKING LABELLED INSURANCE.

The New Gaming Industry of "Lloyds of London." Which Is Now in Vogue.New style betting, "Lloyd system," is now a factor in politics, only it is not called wagering but just insurance. Instead of the person who wishes to lay odds as to the result of the election shaking hands and saying, "You're on," and all that kind of thing, or having to find a stakeholder, he proceeds in solemn state to an insurance broker and asks for a "P. P. I." or, in other words, a "policy with proof of interest."This branch of taking risks is only incidental to the business of the Lloyds, which is in reality a great marine insurance company, which wagers with fate on any vessel as long as the craft is supposed to be afloat and pays losses with the greatest cheerfulness. The Lloyds are an association of marine underwriters, each one of whom pays an initiation fee of $25,000. The risk on ships is the only form of insurance which concerns the Lloyds as an organization, but the individual underwriters will take chances on anything under the sun.They will agree to pay losses if it rains or if it doesn't rain, or if a bill is passed or not, or if against getting his leg broken on Derby Day, or they will guarantee the life of the king for the benefit of the shopkeepers of London. For a considerable sum they will assure a sum to the heirs of any man who fears that he may be blown up by a bomb.Within the Lloyds are many individuals who travel in groups and are in the habit of undertaking certain hazards in common. This was the style when the organization was formed more than 200 years ago and named after the genial person who kept the coffee house where the projectors of the enterprise were accustomed to meet.Mr. Lloyd insured nothing but that the Java would be good and that there should be an abundance of church warden pipes and Hollands. The original members were sedate persons who talked of pledging their fortunes against the perils of Derby Day, or they were themselves interested in argosies of their own besides those belonging to other persons. The modern Lloyds has many bold and adventurous spirits who would as soon not take chances on an American election.No small sums are wagered, however, and it would be impossible for any person with a $5 bill to get any consideration at the hands of the Lloyds.
As all the risks must be accepted or rejected by cable, the process of "insurance" is a formal and lengthy one. The policies are supposed to run up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and hedging is not permitted, if the gentlemen at Lloyds know it.

THIRTY LEADING OWNERS.

James R. Keene holds his leadership among American owners undisturbed and John E. Madden, thanks to the remarkable band of two-year-olds thrives lustily in second place. Only the two have passed the $100,000 mark in stable earnings, but it is not improbable that August Belmont will break over the line before long. Barney Schreiber is securely lodged in fourth place and likely to stay there. The stable winnings of the thirty leaders are as follows:

HILDRETH'S STABLE EARNINGS THIS YEAR.

Beyond capturing an occasional purse at Seattle, S.
C. Hildreth's horses have not done much of late, but he owns a strong stable. He is already well up in the list of winners, which Prolific won, and his credit than in 1907, when his horses won a total of $47,807. With his best campaigners freshened by a long rest, he will probably add conspicuously to his stable returns at Oakland in November and December. To date his stable record is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At Butte, Mont., Tuesday, Ruscino won the fifth race at seven furlongs, and was third at the same distance in the race which followed. In both events he was regarded as a "pull," or one more likely to be sold than to race nowadays.In spite of denials by W. A. Engeman, chief owner of the Brighton Beach race track, there is a strong belief in New York turf circles that the course will be sold the coming fall. It is known that offers have been made for it as an automobile track.There will be enough racing through Montana and the northwest to comfortably occupy the stables after Butte until California racing begins. Five days' good racing is offered at Great Falls, Mont., September 21 to 25 and other towns follow on for some forty days.The Whitney colt, Sea Cliff, by Clifford, out of Fiesole, by Goldinch, out of the great Firenze, hence is royally bred. Three months ago Sea Cliff was regarded as a "pull," or one more likely to be sold early out of the stable, but he has improved so much that he is now not for sale.Captain Jim Rees is at Saratoga. He seldom goes to racing nowadays, but is keenly interested and states that in Memphis there is a feeling that the friends of prohibition were about over and that the friends of racing in Tennessee hope to see an attempt to re-establish the sport in the near future.Douglas Park, at Louisville, is being made ready and will be used instead of Churchill Downs for the regular fall meeting, Lexington and Latonia will, with Louisville, make up a comfortable fall circuit. Among the improvements at Douglas Park is a chute for races at seven-eighths and three-fourths of a mile. It is now being constructed.The old sprinter, Diamond, which is racing in the west, has become such a bad actor and savage that he is not allowed on the track at Seattle. Diamond was a good horse in 1906, winning half his twelve races and nearly $5,000, but in 1905 he was of no account. As a two-year-old in Sydney Page's and E. R. Thomas' colors, Diamond was a fine two-year-old and won the first half of the Brighton Beach Produce Stakes.

BELDAME'S SISTER SHOWS QUALITY.

Dame Beauty's Good Race at Hurst Park—Gossip and Figures of the English Turf.London, Eng., August 2.—August Belmont's chestnut filly, Dame Beauty, by Octagon—Bella Donna, sister to the famous American mare, Bel-dame, improves upon racing acquaintance. Last Saturday at Hurst Park in the Duchess of York's Plate of $5,000 she made her third appearance of the season and as the extreme outsider in the betting, at 12 to 1 in a field of five, ran second to Sir Archibald, beaten easily by three lengths, the mile and a quarter in 2:07. Behind Dame Beauty were Olympian, Edmund and Sandilake colts.
Dame Beauty's race before this was in the Dull-ingham Plate at Newmarket, July 2, when she was sixth in a seven-horse field behind Radium, Morena, Badringer and the mile and a half in 2:23. The filly's only other appearance was a bad one in the Coronation Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, at Ascot Park, June 17, which Lesbia won and perhaps she was well over Ostend and eight.
The Belmont mare was most decidedly improving and is a fine individual of size and substance. She did not race as a two-year-old and came to Newmarket in the same consignment as Norman III.Vigilant writes in the Sportsman: "It is good news to hear that Norman III. is going on well again after his misfortune in the Derby, and in the presence of Mr. Belmont and Mr. Leopold de Rothschild he had a nice gallop and moved in a fine free style with Historic over a mile and a half on Saturday. I hear that there are some promising youngsters among Mr. Belmont's yearlings, and I trust they will realize expectations. Meanwhile it may be noted that five have been nominated for the Derby and two for the Oaks of 1910."The continental correspondent of the Sporting Life writes from Ostend as follows:"From time to time in Belgium a movement is set on foot to suppress the bookmakers and to compel all race course speculation to be conducted through the medium of the pari-mutuel; but so far the example set by France has not been followed; and perhaps it was well for Ostend, where the bookmakers are still allowed to do business in Belgium.
When, after the gaming rooms were closed, M. Mar-quet withdrew his usual contribution to the funds of the prize money, it was not at first seen where the prize money was to come from. With a stake age of $30,000 in the receipts, and the program already announced with a couple of $10,000 races and many other large prizes, something had to be done at once. The committee of the race course, of the new hippodrome at Stockel, the race committee determined to put up to auction the bookmak-ers' pitches, or 'pickets,' as they are called on the continent. The plan has been for each book-maker in the pesage enclose to pay $20 a day for the right to bet, and those outside on the pelouse pay a smaller sum. The order in which they stand is settled among themselves."At Ostend the first pitch is the most valuable of all, being the easiest for communication with clients, and the prominent position attracts the attention of strangers. The 'pickets' were accordingly put up to auction, and M. Marquet acquired the right to bet at the first pitch by paying $3,400; the sale of all the places realized $70,000, and that sum of ready money at once went into the exchequer of the race society. This was more than double what the pitches realized in Belgium last season, so that M. Marquet's missing contribution was more than made up for."Meanwhile, racing continues very prosperously, and provides the chief attraction of the place.
Twelve days' racing have already been given and the program extends till the end of August.Seventeen horses make up the list of winners of $13,000 to August 1. The list is as follows:

 Winner—B. f. by Hamburg—Kilder (trained by A. J. Joyner).
 Went to post at 2:32. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Adriana, after being reserved in forward inside pursuit to the stretch turn, drew out and won as her rider pleased. Frances Ray, badly outpaced by the front division early, finished with a great rush. Biskra ran in prominent contention throughout and held on unexpectedly well. Whip top stumbled and lost ground at the start, then held forth in the rear for five furlongs and finished with a belated challenge. Queen Lead made the running for half the journey and retired, but stuck to her work well. The winner was entered for $900; no bid.
 Scratched—(76351)Gowan, 111.
 Overweights—Queen Lead, 2 pounds; Biskra, 1.

 Winner—B. g. by Handspring—Votario (trained by W. Walker).
 Went to post at 2:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering. Rayonet indulged Bat with the lead for a mile and three-quarters, then moved and passed him in a twinkling and cantered home. Bat led on surferance to the second from the last jump, when he succumbed quickly to the favorite's challenge, blundered subsequently at the last jump and threw his rider, but was remounted and finished. Scratched—(76366)Jimmy Lane, 155; 76423 Malacca, 135.

76481 THIRD RACE—1.8 Miles. (34581—1:51—5—129.) Champlain Handicap. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Net value to winner $535.

 Winner—Br. g. by Sandringham—Vespers (trained by J. E. Madden).
 Went to post at 3:28. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won cantering; second and third driving. Angelus, luckily and forwardly placed in reserve for seven furlongs, drew out in a jiffy on the last turn and held sway without urging to the end. Danoscara outbroke the others and made the running for seven furlongs, then readily succumbed to the favorite's lead, but held on tenaciously and was a fast going second. Kennyetto acted badly and delayed the start, got away a bad start, but quickly rushed into a forward position and tired in the last quarter. Countersign, well up throughout, was a fast going fourth. Lally quickly dropped out, trailed in the rear for a mile and finished gaining.
 Scratched—(76362)Disraeli, 94.
 Overweights—Countersign, 5 pounds; Lally, 2.

76482 FOURTH RACE—3.4 Mile. (70407—1:11—3—122.) Grand Union Hotel Stakes. Value $10,000. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $8,250.

 Winner—Br. g. by Plaudit—Passan (trained by J. E. Madden).
 Went to post at 4:00. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Edward, after being reserved in forward pursuit, drew out midway of the stretch and won out finally after a game struggle with Bobbin. The latter, prominent throughout, went wide on the stretch turn and finished like a shot, but was unable to get with the winner. Danoscara, who was in the lead, was out of the stretch. Hubbard was well up throughout and a game third. Strike out outbroke and outpaced the others for five furlongs and quit, as usual. Statesman, away very badly, closed a big gap. Torreellino, flatfooted and pulling up at the start, was virtually left and closed an immense gap. Helmet seemed unable to extend himself in the going.

 Winner—Br. g. by Giganteum—Alyone II (trained by C. E. Rowe).
 Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won pulling up; second and third driving. Gild drew out and won with ridiculous ease all the way. Polly Watts, taken back and in close quarters in the early running, went after the leader after too long delay and could never get up in a belated stretch rush. Punch, always within striking distance, finished well. John E. McMillan, in inside close quarters and shuffled back, closed a big gap in the middle running, but tired and was palpably short. Holdfast held his own in improved style. Grace Cameron, prominent for half the journey, quit badly. Tender and True dropped out early. The winner was entered for $900; no bid.

 Winner—Br. f. by Star Shoot—Sans Pareil II (trained by T. P. Hayes).
 Went to post at 4:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Variation, forwardly placed from the start, gradually overhauled the leader and decisively outstayed her in a long stretch drive. Sans Pareil II, from a false start, was in the middle of the stretch, but succumbed after a game effort and is promising. Cheek, well up throughout, finished with a rush. Miss Granville was in prominent contention throughout and an easing up fourth. Yankee Daughter, away very badly, closed a big gap into a fast going and close up fifth. Fair Messenger made up much ground in the last half. Helen Harvey was never dangerous. Albani got away very badly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

 Winner—B. c. by Kilmarnock—Anemone (trained by A. L. Darnaby).
 Went to post at 2:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Anemonella moved up on the inside with a rush on the backstretch and drew away into an easy lead after entering the homestretch, but tired and was driving to the limit at the end to stall off Tom Reid. The latter ran on the outside of the leaders all the way and went unnecessarily wide when entering the homestretch. Console ran well up all the way. Philosopher closed a big gap. Stowaway showed speed, but failed to stay. Tramp Faster ran poorly. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Gloriole followed Icaria closely until making the turn into the homestretch, where she went to the front with a rush and drew away, but tired in the last furlong and was driving hard at the end to stall off Lady Leota. The latter broke slowly and was out for the first quarter, then closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Tenoretta ran well throughout. Spright finished well. Lady Ruby was caught in a jam on the far turn and crowded back. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
